E. CONFIRMATION PROCESS FOR QUOTA PLACES

The International Surfing Association (ISA) will publish the final list of qualified NOCs on its website (<http://www.isasurf.org>) on 13 June 2023 at the latest.

ANOC, in conjunction with ISA, will inform the respective NOCs of their allocated quota places within one (1) day of the publication of the list of qualified athletes.

The NOCs will then have one (1) week to confirm in writing with ANOC and ISA if they wish to use these quota places, as detailed in section G. If a confirmation is not provided by the deadline, the quota place obtained will be reallocated as per the procedure indicated in section F.

The quotas for the host country places and invitation places must be confirmed in writing with ANOC and ISA by 21 June 2023.

F. REALLOCATION OF UNUSED QUOTA PLACES

1. Reallocation of unused Qualification Places:

If an allocated quota place is not confirmed by the NOC by the quota place confirmation deadline or is declined by the NOC, then the quota place will be reallocated as follows:

- a) 2023 ISA World Surfing Games: If qualified through the 2023 ISA WSG as outlined in section D, paragraph 1.1, the quota place will be reallocated to the NOC of the next highest ranked eligible athlete at the 2023 ISA WSG, not yet qualified, respecting the maximum quota allocation per NOC per event as specified in section B, paragraph 2.
- b) 2023 ISA World Longboard Surfing Championship: If qualified through the 2023 ISA WLSC as outlined in section D, paragraph 1.3, the quota place will be allocated to the NOC of the next highest ranked eligible athlete at the 2023 ISA WLSC, not yet qualified, respecting the maximum quota allocation per NOC per event as specified in section B, paragraph 2.
- c) Continental Representation: If qualified through D.1.2 or D.1.4 (Continental Representation), the quota place will be allocated to the NOC of the next highest ranked eligible athlete from that continent at the 2023 ISA WSG (D.1.1) or 2023 ISA WLSC (D.1.3), respecting the maximum quota allocation per NOC per event as specified in section B, paragraph 2. Should there be no eligible athlete(s) remaining of a particular continent, then the quota place will be allocated to the NOC of the next highest ranked eligible athlete at the respective event (2023 ISA WSG or 2023 ISA WLSC), regardless of the continent and respecting the maximum quota allocation per NOC per event as specified in section B, paragraph 2.

2. Reallocation of unused Host Country Places:

If a quota place(s) is not used by the Host Country, then the available Host Country place will be reallocated as follows:

- a) 2023 ISA World Surfing Games: If a host country place remains unfilled in the Shortboard event then the quota place will be reallocated to the NOC of the next highest ranked eligible athlete at the 2023 ISA WSG, not yet qualified, respecting the maximum quota allocation per NOC per event as specified in section B, paragraph 2.
- b) 2023 ISA World Longboard Surfing Championship: If a host country place remains unfilled in the Longboard event then the quota place will be allocated to the NOC of the next highest ranked eligible athlete at the 2023 ISA WLSC, not yet qualified, respecting the maximum quota allocation per NOC per event as specified in section B, paragraph 2.

3. Reallocation of unused Invitation Places:

If the Invitation Commission is not able to allocate an invitation place or if a NOC declines an invitation place, then the invitation place will be reallocated as follows:

- a) 2023 ISA World Surfing Games: If an invitation place remains unfilled in the Shortboard event then the quota place will be reallocated to the NOC of the next highest ranked eligible athlete at the 2023 ISA WSG, not yet qualified, respecting the maximum quota allocation per NOC per event as specified in section B, paragraph 2.
- b) 2023 ISA World Longboard Surfing Championship: If an invitation place remains unfilled in the Longboard event then the quota place will be allocated to the NOC of the next highest ranked eligible athlete at the 2023 ISA WLSC, not yet qualified, respecting the maximum quota allocation per NOC per event as specified in section B, paragraph 2.
